

What We Do

Can't come to the Library?
We can help!*

Home delivery is available to qualifying individuals with significant short-term or long-term barriers to visiting a library location. Borrow library materials in any format, delivered to you on a regular monthly schedule. We deliver library materials to healthcare facilities, group homes, and individual residences, offering personalized services to those who qualify. Home delivery is a free service, made possible by public funding, ensuring everyone has access to the library's resources.

*Note that lack of transportation alone does not qualify an individual for home delivery.

Other Ways to Apply

- Fill out our online application: KRL.org/mobileservices

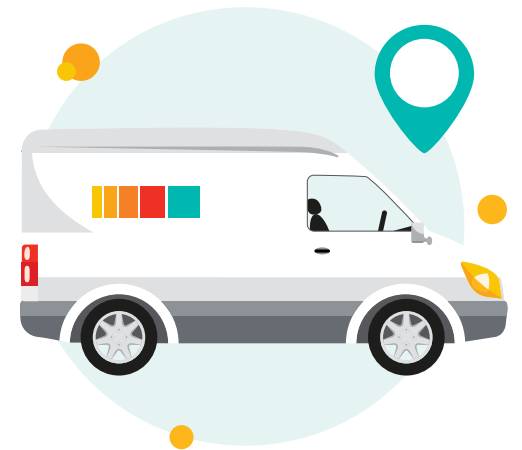

- Call us: (360) 447-5505
- Speak with a staff member at any Library location

Once we receive your application, you can expect a call from a Mobile Services staff member to discuss your first delivery!
